CAUTION

The Dallas FBI Violent Crimes Task Force is seeking the public's assistance in identifying a serial bank robber dubbed the "Bad Hair Bandit," who is believed to be responsible for the following five bank robberies (or attempted bank robberies) during 2016 in Dallas:

January 27, 2016 - BBVA Compass Bank - 11705 Preston Road in Dallas, Texas;

February 8, 2016 - BB&T Bank - 11800 Preston Road in Dallas, Texas;

March 15, 2016 - Comerica Bank - 19176 Preston Road in Dallas, Texas;

March 15, 2016 - Bank of Texas - 6701 Preston Road in Dallas, Texas;

March 15, 2016 - BBVA Compass Bank - 6501 Hillcrest Avenue in Dallas, Texas.

In each robbery, the subject has presented a note demanding money and threatening to have a weapon. To date, no one has been injured. The unknown subject has obtained an undisclosed amount of cash.

Investigators are calling this unknown subject the “Bad Hair Bandit” because they have worn either a black or gray wig during each crime to help conceal their identity.

Anyone with information regarding this robbery is asked to call the Dallas Field Office at 972-559-5000. You may also call the North Texas Crime Stoppers at 1-877-373-TIPS (8477) - all tipsters remain anonymous.
