Who, after being by me duly sworn, on oath deposes and says: I received a ride request from a woman named Jody at the Capital Pub. Upon arrival I had pulled over to the side of the building and waited for Jody to arrive. I waited for several minutes. She didn't show. I then called her thru the Uber app and she answered. I told her where I was located and she walked over to the vehicle. She was visibly intoxicated. She opened the right rear passenger door. I greeted her with Hi Jody. And she responded yes. She entered my vehicle. AS we were driving she lowered her window and yelled at some friends. I had asked her how her night was going. She said good. Then I tried to start a conversation and said are you excited for the holidays. She said yes. She said other things but I don't remember what she said. She was dismissive and it was obvious she did not want to engage in conversation. So I remained quiet until the rest of the trip until we hit a stretch of road where I had to continue straight for several blocks. She insisted I make a right. I informed her I was following a GPS and a Uber app and I had to continue straight. She insisted no and make a right. I again reiterated that I was required by Uber to follow the GPS and app.

She insisted that I make a right. At that point I determined it was safer to go with her direction in order to avoid conflict with someone who was that intoxicated. Upon making that right I asked her where to turn next I believe I said do I make a left or a right. She said follow the fucking GPS. I said alright ma'am so do I follow you or do I follow the GPS. She became irate and angry cursing and calling me names. stupid, dumbass and retard. I told her that I wouldn't put up with her verbal assault and I told her I would pull over and let her out if she continued. This angered her greatly and she said that was not assault, this is assault. She slapped me on my right shoulder with her fingers and the top of her palm. That was the final straw and I pulled over on the very next street and I informed her that I had ended the ride and she would have to exit the vehicle or I would have to call the cops. She refused. I reiterated ma'am please exit my vehicle and call another Uber. she refused again. This went on for several minutes until I felt no choice but to call the authorities. It was at that point that she said she was an assistant d.a. do you think I am afraid of the cops? She continued to throw her weight around in an attempt to intimidate me. I called the authorities and informed them that I had an intoxicated female in my vehicle who refuses to leave after I told her to exit my vehicle. I gave them my location and they sent an officer. After hanging up with 911 I began to record. She continued to berate me and belittle me. Cursing using obscenities such as retard and saying she couldn't wait for the cops to show up so they could fuck me up. I continuously begged for her to please leave my vehicle which she ultimately refused. After several minutes the cop arrived and she became quiet. The cop walked over to the vehicle on the driver side. He asked me how are you. Some sort of pleasantry. I said I have it all on tape. She refuses to get out of my car. He cut me off before I could continue about her assaulting me and he said I believe you. He asked me to roll down the back window and he asked her to get out of the vehicle. Which she complied without incident. Immediately upon exiting the vehicle she stated to the officer I am an assistant district attorney. May I speak with you. He
